

Think of your favorite forms of entertainment. Do you watch movies, TV shows, read books, play video games? How about listening to your favorite albums or attending rockin' concerts? Now's your chance to share your review of one of your faves.

Keep in mind the critical reviews we've been checking out in class. What kinds of things are included in a review? What details will you need to research or review? Look up character/actor/director/creator names. Definitely rewatch or relisten or do a bit of gaming to refresh your memories. Know that you will need details to make it "real" for the reader.

Again, as in all writing, the content should dictate the structure (DON'T write 5 paragraph essays). Choose vibrant verbs and descriptive adjectives and be willing to throw in some writing tricks for good measure. Make it fun to read!

After you research/review, simply draft the writing. It doesn't have to be "good," it just has to be. And it doesn't have to ALL be positive – be willing to be critical too – our favorite forms of entertainment have weaknesses as well as strengths.

Requirements:

- YOUR OWN review of a movie, tv show/series, music album, video game, restaurant, food (fast-food, homecooked, etc.), product (e.g. apparel, household, electronic, health & beauty)
- typed in a Word document in MLA format (this means, among other things, double-spaced)
- 1 ½ to 2 ½ pages in length
- an original title (ALL works you write need a fitting title, NOT the assignment name)
- your best effort

Your draft (when complete) will be uploaded in a digital MSWord format via Dropbox. (If you use a PDF form or Googledocs, be sure to reformat in Word before submitting.)

PROVIDE DOCUMENT NAMES FOR YOUR WORK AS FOLLOWS *

- LastnameDRAFT#3.docx (Ex. McMurrayDRAFT#3.docx)

**Leaving the .docx or .doc after the document name will allow the document to be opened in Dropbox without download (don't add it – it will automatically show up).

To change names of already named pieces, find the document, and without opening it, right click. Choose "rename" and fix the name, then "enter."

STEPS TO COMPLETE DRAFT #3

1. Open Dropbox and Sign In
2. Open your shared drafts folder
3. Either work through this folder and MSWord Online or use Upload to put the required and CORRECTLY titled piece in the folder (Doc title here includes your name DRAFT#3)

DRAFT EVALUATION

Draft #3 will receive feedback and commentary from students in your WRITE CLUB group in Dropbox side comments. Then, it's up to you to decide what you will do next to improve your piece of writing.
